INTERNATIONAL HERITAGE, INC. :
Debtor : CHAPTER 7

NOTICE OF RESPONSE TO TRUSTEE'S OBJECTION TO CLAIM

DECLARATION OF PAMELA A. JOHNSON

I, Pamela A. Johnson, do hereby swear and affirm as follows:

I am a creditor in the above-captioned case, and I was provided notice of the Trustee's objection to my claim in a document dated October 26, 2007. The reason for the objection is described as follows: "The legal basis for your claim is unclear and/or there is no documentation attached to your claim or the attached documentation does not substantiate the amount claimed. Trustee requests denial of claim." I do not request a hearing, as the expense and timing of such a trip would add further injury and financial expenditure to that already incurred as a result of the Debtor's conduct. I respectfully request that the Trustee review my declaration in support of my claim and the exhibits attached hereto. I believe that the declaration under penalty of perjury and supporting documents provide a clear basis for my claim of $35,000.00, which does not begin to address the inconvenience, emotional distress and other significant non-economic damages I have suffered due to the Debtor's fraud.

I make this declaration and provide the attached documentation in support of my claim in this matter, Claim No: 001757 in the amount of $35,000.00.

In October of 1998, my business partner, Lois Coonc (Claim No. 001758), and I both agreed to each provide the debtor in this matter, International Heritage, Inc., with a loan secured by promissory notes in the amount of $35,000.00 each. In addition, an acquaintance of ours, Jean Wedin (Claim No. 006241), provided a $25,000.00 loan to IHI around the same time, also secured by a promissory note and a UCC-1 filing. The funds were transferred to IHI in October 1998. The notes were signed by Stan Van Etten, President of International Heritage, Inc. and a UCC-1 filing including a Schedule of Collateral was made in Wake County, NC, and supposedly with the North Carolina Secretary of State, per the cover letter signed by Georgina Mallick, Vice President of Legal Affairs, who also purportedly witnessed the signatures of Mr. Van Etten (which are clearly stamped) and also signed the Promissory Notes.

Due to the passage of a considerable amount of time, complete records are not available. I offer documents from each of us as evidence, as at one point, we all received substantially the same documentation. I hereby swear and affirm that each of these documents is a true and correct copy of the documents we received from the Debtor, IHI. At one time, I had a UCC-1 Financing Statement and Schedule of Collateral, a Promissory Note signed by the Debtor in the amount of $35,000.00, and a letter from Ms. Mallick. I have never received any payment from the Debtor. The following documents are attached in support of my claim.

- 1) A copy of the UCC-1 Financing Statement and Schedule of Collateral (stamped 98 008341) for Pamela Johnson is attached hereto.
- 2) A copy of a Promissory Note to Lois Coonc in the amount of $35,000.00 signed by Stan Van Etten, President of IHI. This is identical to the Promissory Note I received except that my note was made out to Pamela Johnson.
- 3) A copy of a Promissory Note to Jean Wedin in the amount of $25,000.00 signed by Stan Van Etten, President of IHI.
- 4) A letter to Jean Wedin from Georgina Mallick dated October 20, 1998 referencing the Promissory Note and alleged filings.

I swear under penalty of perjury of the laws of the State of Washington, the laws of the State of North Carolina, and the laws of the United States of America that this declaration is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Dated this 19th day of November, 2007, in LaConner, Skagit County, State of Washington.
